

Get your copy of Little Brown Girl now!

In a quick, easy-to-read style, Behnush Mortimer shares her story as the kid at school who's not like everyone else. In a story that is instantly relatable, you'll watch as Behnush transitions from outsider to being someone everyone WANTS to know.

Join Behnush as we all learn the most important lesson – the one that has made her into a tough, smart business professional who is very secure today in who she is.

Because every kid deserves to know their individuality is their strength. Behnush Mortimer will show any child how to dream big and to know they should be proud of who they are.

NOW AVAILABLE IN PAPERBACK!

ISBN # 979-8-9896431-4-1 • Published by Write Away Books

Available on Amazon or directly from the author (autographed upon request).

About the author

Originally of Persian extraction, Behnush Mortimer knows what it's like to be the one kid who gets made fun of or who nobody understands. Today, as a successful Vocational Rehabilitational Consultant, she is passionate about helping individuals achieve their fullest potential and ensuring they're empowered to reach all their personal and professional life choices.

Behnush lives in Carlsbad, CA, with her husband, daughter, and two dogs. They enjoy spending their time in the sun and at the sea.